

ALMA MATER STUDIORUM
UNIVERSITÀ DI BOLOGNA

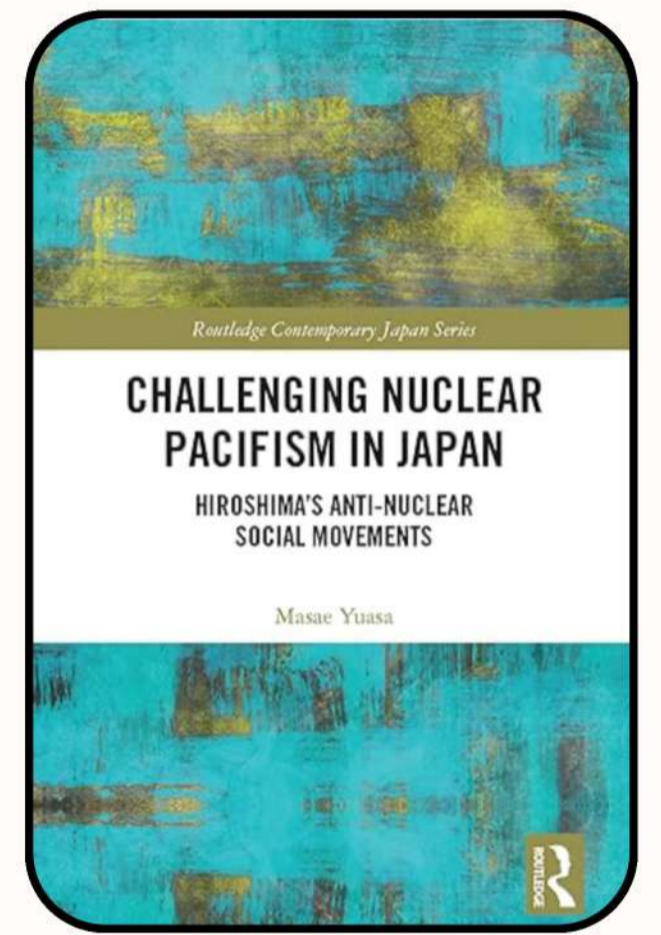

DIPARTIMENTO
DI LINGUE, LETTERATURE
E CULTURE MODERNE

taal: unie

Inheriting Hiroshima Heart: Imaginary Institution of Anti-Nuclear Movements in Hiroshima

Professor Masae Yuasa
(Hiroshima City University)

This event is organised as part of the research project "Anne Frank's Footprints. Sociology of Translation and Reception, Digital (Post) Memory and Memory Education in a Global Perspective" (AFTransMem 06 2 120)

Prof. Masae Yuasa is a sociologist teaching in the Faculty of International Studies of Hiroshima City University, Japan. Among her latest publication there is "Challenging Nuclear Pacifism in Japan Hiroshima's Anti-nuclear Social Movements" (Routledge, 2024)

17/04

h 13-15
Sala Convegni,
Via Cartoleria 5, Bologna

Organizers Marco Prandoni and Veronica De Pieri (University of Bologna); Lorenzo Nespoli (Ca' Foscari University)