

ALMA MATER STUDIORUM
UNIVERSITÀ DI BOLOGNA

DIPARTIMENTO
DI LINGUE, LETTERATURE
E CULTURE MODERNE

Inheriting Hiroshima Heart: Imaginary Institution of Anti-Nuclear Movements in Hiroshima

Professor Yuasa Masae
(Hiroshima City University)

Organizers Marco Prandoni and Veronica De Pieri (University of Bologna); Lorenzo Nespoli (Ca' Foscari University)

taal: unie

This event is organised as part of the research project "Anne Frank's Footprints. Sociology of Translation and Reception, Digital (Post)Memory and Memory Education in a Global Perspective" (AFTransMem 06 2 120)

Prof. Yuasa Masae is a sociologist teaching in the Faculty of International Studies of Hiroshima City University, Japan. Among her latest publication there is "Challenging Nuclear Pacifism in Japan Hiroshima's Anti-nuclear Social Movements" (Routledge, 2024)

17/04

h 13-15
Sala Convegni,
Via Cartoleria 5,
Bologna